International Bibliography of the Social Sciences (IBSS) is a bibliographic database published by the Cambridge University Press. IBSS is a multidisciplinary database of the refereed literature on the social sciences, including economics, political science, sociology, and anthropology. The database covers a wide range of topics, including international relations, social theory, political economy, and social movements. The database is updated on a monthly basis, and includes articles, books, and book chapters from over 3,500 journals and other serials. IBSS is used by researchers, students, and professionals in the social sciences as a tool for finding relevant literature. It is available in both print and online formats.
